THE MIDGET FOR 1957

Published by

The Students of

William King High School

Abingdon, Virginia

FOREWORD

The Annual Staff of 1957 sincerely hopes to preserve the many happy events of this year in this volume. In later years, we hope that by turning through these pages, old friendships and old experiences, dulled by time, will be vividly recalled.

DEDICATION

After much careful thought and deliberation, we wish to dedicate our annual to a person whom we feel has had a lasting influence upon our students as a coach, teacher and friend. There are not enough words to express our appreciation to him. With best wishes we dedicate this, the 1957 MIDGET, to Mr. Gene T. Crookshank.

ANNUAL QUEEN AND COURT

The Queen-Judy Snodgrass

Kathy Chambers

Barbara Harris

Betty Kreger

Joyce Neal

This year for the first time the annual staff sponsored an "annual queen" contest in connection with their subscription sales. Each girl represents the class by whom she was selected to run for annual queen - Judy was from the junior class, Kathy from the freshman class, Barbara from the senior class, Betty from the sophomore class, and Joyce from the eighth grade. Gift to the queen was a copy of the 1957 MIDGET.

MEMORIAL

We, the Annual Staff of 1957, feel that this annual should be in memory of the late Mrs. Evelyn Rhudy. For many years Mrs. Rhudy taught in the elementary grades at William King. She was very much loved by both teachers and students. With hearts heavy with sorrow, we place this annual as an everlasting memorial to Mrs. Evelyn Rhudy.

SCHOOL LIFE

KEY CLUB

The Key Club is a club for high school boys in the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. It functions as a service club, and has carried out several major projects this year. Among these were providing Christmas food baskets for needy families, financed by a basketball game between the club members and the high school faculty; road patrol in the morning before school, and raising the flag; and the annual Key Club dance, profits of which helped send delegates to the state convention. Gary Neal was elected Capital District secretary at the convention.

FIRST ROW, left to right: Mr. Kenneth Mathews - Sponsor, Anne Sanders - Key Club Sweetheart, Irvin Wells - President. SECOND ROW: Tommy Pierce, Daryel Hartman, Jimmy James. THIRD ROW: Errol Wallace - Vice President, Richard Smith - Treasurer, Don Bradley, George Smeltzer. FOURTH ROW: David Farris, Chester Moore, Peter Anderson. FIFTH ROW: Richard Wright, Gail Totten, Albert Hill. SIXTH ROW: Carl Lindstrom, Raymond Miller, Lewis Woolwine. NOT PICTURED: Jim Butt, Edd Legard - Secretary, Gary Neal.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, composed of club and class officers, devotes most of its time to problems that may arise in clubs and classes. However they did carry out some extra projects. One of these was sponsoring a mock election (see picture below). Another was a slave auction in which club members were auctioned to the students for a day of servant-hood. A project which was considered of great importance was the starting of a series of open houses for the students of William King. This project was carried out in cooperation with other service clubs, as each club had charge of the open house for one Saturday night.

FIRST ROW, left to right: Mr. H. D. Denton - Sponsor, Tommy Pierce - Secretary, Chippy Smith - Treasurer, Edd Legard - Vice-President, Raymond Miller - President, Mr. Kenneth Mathews - Sponsor. SECOND ROW: Jimmy White, Johnny Bundy, Ann Pippin, Jill Blevins, Joey Collins. THIRD ROW: Warren Sanders, Sandra Neal, Jane Miller, Judy Anderson, Brenda Talbert. FOURTH ROW: Malissa Miller, Sandra Coomes, Nancy Wise, Margaret Thompson, Betty Kreger. FIFTH ROW: Patti Rush, Kirk White, Fred Garrett, Ronny Jackson. SIXTH ROW: R. D. Powers, Errol Wallace, Irvin Wells. SEVENTH ROW: Hugh Kent, Gary Neal, Billy Eskridge.

CAPTAIN
Raymond

Here are the District Seven Champions for 1957!! Most of these boys have played all of their high school basketball under Coach Mathews. For Raymond, Gail, Bobby, Richard, and Errol winning the championship was a grand climax in their senior year. For their team-mates it will mean, as well as the present triumph, a challenge in the seasons to come. High scorer for the 1957 season was Gail Totten.
